

APPLICATIONS DUE AUG 1ST

To apply for these positions, please send your resume to education@estacadafbc.org

Teacher: Candidate for the position of Friday FUN-da-mentals teacher must be onsite 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on REID Fridays (30 Fridays in the school year), with additional prep during the week. Some prep and break time included in the day. Experience required teaching elementary students. Collaboration with other teachers, aides, and volunteers makes this job fun. Small classes of 15-20 students with an aide in each class. Highly qualified licensure preferred, but not required. Pays $300.00 per Friday worked, beginning September 16th. Must support the theological positions of Estacada First Baptist Church and pass a background check. Send resume and references to education@estacadafbc.org.

Aides: Candidates must be onsite 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on REID Fridays (30 Fridays in the school year). Breaks during the day, depending on volunteers and student schedules. Experience required working with elementary students. Assists teachers and volunteers in creating a fun and educational experience for all students in small (15-20) classes. Pays $150 per Friday worked, beginning September 16th. Must support the theological positions of Estacada First Baptist Church and pass a background check. Send resume and references to education@estacadafbc.org.

Volunteers needed: Do you love Jesus and Estacada's children? Do you have skills and knowledge to share with them? Do you have a little time available on Fridays? If you have one to three hours to volunteer, for one day, one term (10 Fridays) or every REID day (30 Fridays during the school year), then we want to hear from you! You can make a huge difference to kids in our public schools who need a safe, friendly, and fun place to learn and grow this year. Must support the theological positions of Estacada First Baptist Church and pass a background check. Contact education@estacadafbc.org to volunteer.

The Mission

Friday FUN-da-mentals is a ministry of the Estacada First Baptist Church. Its mission is to provide academic support, Biblical Truth, and practical assistance to Estacada students and families.

- Outreach to K-5th grade students in public schools.
- Cost: $400 per 10 week term.
- See calendar for offered dates, which coordinate with Estacada School District's REID days.
- Includes
 - academic tutoring
 - enrichment classes (art, music, PE, etc.),
 - Bible
 - Creation Science
 - academic skills

Each class will have a teacher and aide at all times. No grades or homework are required for these enrichment classes. Friday activities are designed to be fun for students, while meeting high academic, behavioral, and Biblical standards.